

Captures-Protocols (taken from nabatmonitoring.org)

NABat encourages submissions of capture data; user capture data may facilitate the interpretation of acoustic and colony count surveys to verify species presence/absence in an area. However, NABat does not specify guidance protocols regarding the capture or handling of bats. Capture surveys should only be performed under direct supervision of a permitted biologist.

For more information, visit <https://www.nabatmonitoring.org/collect-data>